“Cuomo Vows Stricter Gun Controls in New York”

(Newsmax, 8/8/12)

New York State already has the toughest gun control laws in the nation, but it isn't enough for some.

Gun bans, waiting periods, purchase limits... it's all part of a new plan being developed in Albany.

So who can we trust to defend our Second Amendment rights?

Roy McDonald promises to defend gun rights but in just the past year he has broken promises on marriage, taxes and reform.

McDonald said he has "evolved" on some issues. Who's to say he won't evolve on our gun rights when push comes to shove?

NYC Mayor and anti-gun crusader, Michael Bloomberg is one of McDonald's top financial backers and rewarded him $10,300 for his same-sex marriage vote.

Kathy Marchione is a member of the NRA and pistol permit holder who remembers reloading ammunition with her dad at his gun shop.

As County Clerk, she fought to protect the privacy rights of pistol permit holders.

As our Senator, she'll fight gun control measures like microstamping and making pistol permits renewable. And Kathy will work to make New York a "shall-issue" state.
